CONGRATULATIONS TO TRIAL TEAM

Special accolades go to David Durm and Alan Schuchman. They recently participated in the National Trial Competition and won 5th place, having earned the opportunity to participate in the nationals by winning the regionals in Chicago in February. To put it in context, they were fifth out of approximately 250 teams that participated. See their trophy in our display case outside Room 125.

SNYDER VISITING SCHOLAR AWARDEE

Congratulations go to Cynthia Baraban, who has been selected by a special faculty committee, to be our Earl A. Snyder Visiting Scholar at Cambridge University. Cynthia will graduate this May and will spend this coming summer at Cambridge continuing her research on Estonia's ascension to the European Union.

REGISTRATION FOR SUMMER AND FOR FALL

Over the next two weeks we will have registration in our Recorder's Office, as follows:

SUMMER--this Wednesday or Thursday, March 25 or 26. All current students wishing to register for this summer may do so either day in the Recorder's Office. There is no "first in line" priority. All students registering by the end of the day on Thursday will receive equal priority within seniority for summer courses. The summer schedule will be placed in mailslots on Monday. If you are unsure about summer registration at this time, you might register now and then cancel if you decide not to attend.

Alternatively, you can also register the first day of the class by paying a late fee.

FALL SEMESTER--for current 2Ls: Monday, March 30; for current 1Ls: Wednesday, April 1 (truly).

Registration again takes place in the Recorder's Office at any point during the assigned days above. If you are ill on that day, please see the Recorder as soon thereafter as you can. All relevant materials for registration are or will be in mailslots. During the noon hour on Thursday there will be some special faculty advising sessions and later in the afternoon there will be a Happy Hour, before and during the PILF Happy Hour, to give an opportunity to address faculty with your questions.

THE FEDERALIST SOCIETY

Dr. Michael Greve, executive director of the Washington, D.C.-based Center for Individual Rights, will address recent legal trends affecting affirmative action in university and law school admissions in the Moot Court Room on Wednesday, March 25 at 12:15 p.m. As a follow-up to CIR's victory in the 5th Circuit law school admissions case Hopwood v. Texas, the public interest law firm is now litigating a similar case at the undergraduate level against the University of Michigan. In order to facilitate the exchange of ideas through a debate format, the Society was as of last week still seeking an individual supporting the continued use of racial preferences in university and law school admissions to speak opposite Dr. Greve. For more information, please contact secretary Kristi Prutow at 334-7749 or kprutow@indiana.edu.

The following day, Thursday March 26, Professor Terry Bethel will deliver the fifth talk in the Lawyers at the Lion series at the Irish Lion at 6 p.m. Everyone is welcome to attend Prof. Bethel's discussion of current issues in labor law.

The Federalist Society will be hosting a speech by Notre Dame Professor Charles Rice on April 8 in the Moot Court Room. Professor Rice will critique Roe v. Wade and its progeny. The Society is still seeking an individual to speak opposite Professor Rice in defense of Roe and the plurality decision of the 1992 decision Planned Parenthood of Southeastern Pennsylvania v. Casey.

PILF

PILF will be hosting a Happy Hour in the student lounge on March 26 at 4:30. Everyone is welcome.

On Saturday March 28 PILF would like to welcome everyone to participate in a community service project. We will be working on improving some parks in Bloomington. If interested please meet at the law school at 11 a.m. Please contact Heather Rastorfer 2L with any questions. We hope to see you there.

PILF's Work A Day fundraiser is underway. Proceeds will go toward summer fellowships for students doing volunteer work this summer.

PILF summer fellowship applications are due on Wednesday, March 25. If you have a problem meeting this deadline, please contact Heather Rastorfer 2L with your concern.

REP. KRUZAN AND KATHRYN WILLIAMS TO SPEAK ON NEW CHILDREN'S LEGISLATION

State Representative Mark Kruzan and Kathryn Williams of the Coalition for Human Services will visit the law school Tuesday, March 31 at 12:15 to discuss new Indiana legislation
